Therefore, our Arizona State Constitution declares; Arizona Constitution Art. 11 Section 21. Free and equal elections Section 21. All elections shall be free and equal and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right to suffrage.

Therefore South Carolina's constitution Art. 2 Section 1 applies to we the people of Arizona as well as we the people in South Carolina. South Carolina's constitution Art. 2 Section 1 states: Elections are to be by secret ballot: protection of right of suffrage. "All elections by the people shall be by secret ballot, but the ballots should not be counted in secret. The right of suffrage as regulated in this constitution, shall be protected by laws regulating elections and prohibiting, under accurate penalties, all undue influence from power, bribery, tumult or improper conduct".

Therefore a bipartisan hand count is necessary to fulfill the law of the land.
